Dear [Associate Editor / Handling Editor],

We sincerely thank the editor and reviewers for the opportunity to revise our manuscript. We have carefully considered each comment and revised the manuscript to improve its clarity, scientific rigor, and presentation.

Below, we provide a point-by-point response to all editorial and reviewer comments. The original comments are reproduced in full, followed by our responses and the corresponding locations of changes in the revised manuscript. [If applicable: Changes are shown using tracked changes in the revised manuscript.]

We appreciate the time and constructive feedback provided by the editor and reviewers. We hope that the revised manuscript satisfactorily addresses the concerns raised.

Sincerely,
[Corresponding author name]
On behalf of all authors

Responses to Reviewer 1 Comments

General Comment: [Paste any overall assessment or general comment by Reviewer 1, if provided.]

Response: We thank the reviewer for this constructive assessment. We have [summarize the main revisions made in response to the general concerns].

1. [Paste Reviewer 1, Comment 1 exactly as received.]

Response: We appreciate this important point. In the revised manuscript, we have [state the specific methodological clarification, additional analysis, new result, or textual revision]. Specifically, [explain what was done and why it addresses the concern].
